Crossword Puzzle Cleanup and Public Involvement

Across

DOE activities and attend ORSSAB Board meetings is the DOE Center. 4. The reduction of this factor is the major cleanup driver of the Accelerated Cleanup program in addition to the reduction of mortgage (surveillance and maintenance) costs of buildings. 7. A segment of the population that has a stake in the cleanup process by virtue of residence in the area and may participate voluntarily in the cleanup decisions by attending meetings and commenting on documents.
 The reduction of this factor is the major cleanup driver of the Accelerated Cleanup program in addition to the reduction of mortgage (surveillance and maintenance) costs of buildings. A segment of the population that has a stake in the cleanup process by virtue of residence in the area and may participate voluntarily in the cleanup decisions by attending meetings and commenting on documents. An annual report that reflects the CERCLA five year reporting requirement is titled the Effectiveness Report. A responsibility of the board members to submit advice in this form to the DOE on key environmental management issues. The Agreement is a cooperative effort and defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program. 	1.
residence in the area and may participate voluntarily in the cleanup decisions by attending meetings and commenting on documents. 9. An annual report that reflects the CERCLA five year reporting requirement is titled the Effectiveness Report. 10. A responsibility of the board members to submit advice in this form to the DOE on key environmental management issues. 12. The Agreement is a cooperative effort and defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 15. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.	4.	The reduction of this factor is the major cleanup driver of the Accelerated Cleanup program in addition to the reduction of mortgage (surveillance and maintenance) costs attending meetings and commenting on documents. 9. An annual report that reflects the CERCLA five year reporting requirement is titled theEffectiveness Report. 10. A responsibility of the board members to submit advice in this form to the DOE on key environmental management issues. 12. TheAgreement is a cooperative effort and defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 15. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.	7.	A segment of the population that has a stake in the cleanup process by virtue of Effectiveness Report. 10. A responsibility of the board members to submit advice in this form to the DOE on key environmental management issues. 12. TheAgreement is a cooperative effort and defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 15. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.
 A responsibility of the board members to submit advice in this form to the DOE on key environmental management issues. The Agreement is a cooperative effort and defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program. 	9.
 12. The Agreement is a cooperative effort and defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 15. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program. 	10.
 defined interaction between three agencies to ensure environmental requirements are met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 15. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program. 		environmental management issues.
 met and cleanup is performed quickly and responsibly on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 15. The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program. 	12.	The Agreement is a cooperative effort and
 The official body of documents that form the basis for the selection of a particular response action. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.
response action. 16. One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Oak Ridge Reservation. 17. A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics 18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.	15.	•
 A characteristic of board membership with respect to views, culture and demographics The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program. 	16.	One of the federal agencies involved in the tri-party cleanup agreement on the
18. The Department of Energy program responsible for the cleanup activities on the Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.
Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.		·
	18.
Down		Oak Ridge Reservation is the Management Program.

- 2. The local board that provides DOE with policy information, advice, and recommendations concerning environmental restoration, waste management and technology development activities.
- 3. 2015 is the year the scope of accelerated cleanup will be
- 5. The interval number of years requirement that EPA and TDEC must review the completed remedial actions at the reservation to ensure human health and the environment remain protected.
- 6. Acronym for the Federal Advisory Committee Act (1995) that chartered the eleven (currently nine) DOE site boards.
- 7. The process of optimizing the order of projects to be completed on the reservation based on risk.
- 8. The landlord for the Oak Ridge Reservation and the lead agency in the cleanup
- 11. A term for the regulatory supervision role performed by EPA and TDEC in the Federal Facility Agreement (FFA).
- 13. The name of the DOE plan to expedite cleanup of the Oak Ridge Reservation, including closure of East Tennessee Technology Park and completion of Melton Valley cleanup.
- 14. The state agency responsible for the oversight of the cleanup process on the Oak Ridge Reservation.

Created by Puzzlemaker at DiscoverySchool.com

WORD LIST: Information, Prioritization, Risk, FACA, Stakeholder, Remediation, TDEC, Five, Recommendation, Federal Facility, Administrative Record, DOE, Oversight, EPA, Accelerated Cleanup, Diversity, Environmental, ORSSAB, Complete